Zero Tolerance Policy for Sport Rage:

The Central Zone executive have adopted a shared Zero Tolerance policy which has been implemented across all Associations within our region. Any poor behaviour directed at officials, players, coaches, spectators, staff, and volunteers at this event will NOT be tolerated. Any abuse will result in persons being asked to leave the venue for the remainder of the event.

This is a development tournament. The Central Zone executive have set this up as an opportunity to train and evaluate our Regional and National level officials, score-bench, and statisticians. It is a great opportunity for teams to get some games in before all the big tournaments scheduled to take place in the coming months.
